CLARK PROUD OF RECORD

CONGRATULATES DEMOCRATS ON REDEMPTION OF CAMPAIGN PLEDGES.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Champ Clark speaker of the house of representatives, in a review of the work of the first session of the Sixty-Second congress, declared the democratic party set a good example for democrats everywhere, and that the party had redeemed every promise it made in the campaign of 1910 when the democrats wrested control from the republicans.

"At this session the democrats have made a record which has surprised our friends and dumbfounded our enemies," said Speaker Clark. "It has put heart and hope into democrats everywhere. The situation was extraordinary not only in the sense of being a special session called by the president, but also in the amount and quality of the work done, in the house by the combined democrats and insurgents and the combined democrats and republican insurgents in the senate, and especially by the unanimity of action developed by the house democrats.

Expectations Disappointed.

"It was predicted freely, vociferously, enthusiastically and confidently by the 'standpatters,' press and orators that we would go to pieces on that account, and by reason of that hope they rejoiced that the extra session of congress was called, so that we might go to pieces at the earliest possible date.

"But we have disappointed their expectations. They even set the date on which we should go to pieces, but unfortunately for them, everything was done unanimously. When they found we had agreed in spite of their malicious predictions to the contrary, in caucus, they had to pinch themselves to see if they were awake. They then said surely we would go to pieces as soon as we reached the tariff question, but again they were doomed to disappointment and we did not go to pieces at all. We are more thoroughly united in the house at the end of the session, if possible, than at the beginning.

Set Good Example.

"We have set a good example to democrats everywhere. Sneered at for years as a party of mere negation and as being utterly lacking in ability for constructive statesmanship, we passed through the house more constructive legislation, and better than has passed through any house in the same length of time in twenty years. We have set the pace in that regard for future houses.

"We redeemed every promise made in order to carry the elections in 1910. We have economized; we passed the reciprocity bill, the cotton bill with the senate amendments which included the iron and steel schedule, and the chemical schedule; we submitted for ratification a constitutional amendment providing for popular election of senators of the United States; we passed a bill for the publication of campaign expenses before the election; we liberalized the rules making the committees elective by the house; we passed a resolution to admit New Mexico and Arizona, and we passed a large number of other bills of more or less importance. It is a record of which we may well be proud and on which we will sweep the country in 1912.

Standpatters Demoralized.

"To show how completely the standpat republicans are demoralized it is only necessary to quote the news paper statement that there was great rejoicing and congratulations at the white house because we failed by a scratch to get the two-thirds majority to override the president's veto, although we have only sixty-three.

"Notwithstanding the fact that four cabinet members were on the floor of the house lobbying in favor of the veto bill with all their power, notwithstanding allurements and patronage of the administration to help them influence votes twenty-two insurgent republicans had the courage and manhood to override the president's vetoes. What's writ is writ, and whatever the future may have in store the honor of having perfect unanimity among the democrats and of achieving an extraordinary amount of constructive statesmanship at this extraordinary session can never be taken away from us. Every democrat in the house and every insurgent republican who stood up to the rack is entitled to his full share of credit.

"Blocked the Game."

We honestly and persistently persisted to relieve the people of the burden of taxation, but the president would not have it. To use a sporting phrase, "he blocked the game." On these issues we appeal to the country, feeling absolutely certain that we have stood manfully for the best interests of the people, the people will stand by us.

The four cabinet officers to whom the speaker referred as having been on the floor of the house when the tariff revision votes were pending in that body were Attorney General Wickersham, Postmaster General Hitchcock, Secretary of War Stimson and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel.

FROZEN TO DEATH ON PIKE'S PEAK

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 22.—W. A. Skinner and wife of Dallas, Tex., who came here in July to spend the heated term, met with sudden death in a blinding storm of wind, rain, hail and snow on the summit of Pike's Peak this morning.

Their frozen bodies were found by mere chance under a deep snowdrift near the tracks of the cog railroad at a 12,500-foot altitude, and within less than two miles of their destination, at 1 p. m. today, by a boy who was attracted by a part of the woman's dress fluttering in the wind.

Coroner Jackson was notified and was taken up by special train and the bodies are now in the morgue pending orders of relatives for shipment to Dallas.

The Skinners started alone on their nine-mile climb from the Manitou depot to the summit, expecting probably to be joined by other tourists as is the usual experience in the resort season. Half-way up they were overtaken by the storm, but continued on their journey, though insufficiently clad for the cold.

At last, benumbed by cold and exhausted by their efforts at climbing, they sat down to rest. When found they were in each other's arms and had thus died, probably at the same hour.

Transportation tickets and other letters and papers established their identity and home.

MCALISTER WOMAN ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF ARSON

McAlester, Ok., Aug. 23.—Mrs. Esther Swartz of this city was arrested yesterday on a charge of fraudulently destroying mortgaged property. Sheriff Tatum made the arrest at her home and she was taken by Ott Reed a deputy, to Krebs, where she was held by Justice Reed in bail of $2,500 for a preliminary hearing. She made bond and was released.

The arrest is made in connection with the destructive fire at Krebs Saturday night. She is the daughter of J. Jacobs, in whose store the fire is said to have originated and who was the heaviest loser by the fire.

The maximum penalty for the offense charged is seven years.

Mrs. Swartz was the last person to leave the store the night of the fire. She caught an interurban car to return to her home in McAlester.

It is stated that other passengers on the car saw that there was a fire in the store when the car had reached the school house, about 200 yards away.

Whether the swearing out of the warrant is based on this circumstance alone it is impossible to ascertain at this time.

As stated yesterday, Fire Marshal Hammonds was requested by some citizens to investigate the origin of the Krebs fire but it was stated later that he could not come to McAlester to investigate as there is no appropriation for his expenses.

The arrest will doubtless do Mr. Jacobs great damage, whatever the result of the action, for the loss of the Krebs stock was serious to him.

He runs a large store in McAlester.

VANOSS RECEIVES ITS FIRST BALE

Vanoss received its first bale of cotton this morning. It was raised by S. M. Richardson, who lives a mile east of Vanoss. It was purchased by C. M. Long at 12c, and in addition the grower received a premium of $20.

It is reported that the hot winds and worms have done much damage and that the crop will be very short in consequence.

W. J. Reed made a business trip to Oklahoma City yesterday afternoon.

PRESIDENT SIGNS INDIAN PAYMENT BILL

Washington, Aug. 22.—At the last minute of the closing session of congress the senate finally passed and the clerks enrolled in time for signature by the president three local bills for Oklahoma, which means the payment to the Oklahoma Indians of a total of about $5,000,000 and the extension of time in the matter of payment on lands bought by about 200 farmers around El Reno.

One of these measures was the Carter bill providing for the payment of $50 apiece to some 90,000 Indians of the Cherokee, Choctaw, Chickasaw and Seminole Nations; the Ferris bill providing for another payment of about $133 per head to the Kiowas, Comanches and Apaches, this sum aggregating $400,000, and the third was the Morgan bill to give the settlers around El Reno an extension of time in which to pay for their lands. All three bills were signed by the president at the capitol shortly before final adjournment.

THE SALISAW RAILROAD AGAIN

Some months ago, J. W. Murphy, a railroad promoter of Chicago, was in Ada with a proposition to build a railroad from Salisaw to Lawton via this city. Nothing has been heard from him for quite awhile, but the Duncan Eagle states that he is still at work on the deal. According to the Eagle he claims to have arranged in England for the sale of $60,000,000 of bonds with which to build his projected lines. If he means business, Ada is ready to talk with him at any time.

POTTAWATOMIE COUNTY SEAT MUDDLE

Shawnee, Okla., Aug. 23.—Referee Judge Martin at Tulsa handed down a decision in the Shawnee-Tecumseh county seat contest Tuesday morning in which he holds that the offer by Shawnee of its city hall building for a county court house, during the campaign prior to the election, is equivalent to offering a bribe, and that the matter of changing the location of the county seat must be referred to the people.

When the news of Judge Martin's decision became known in Shawnee

POLICE REPORT FOR JUNE AND JULY

Business was rather dull in police circles during June and July. According to the report of Judge Powers presented to the council Monday evening, 19 cases were brought before him in June. Of these there were 14 convictions and pleas of guilty. The total amount of fines collected was $117.50. Of this the city received $57.75, the police judge $43, and police $16.75.

In July 15 cases were brought up, resulting in 14 convictions and pleas of guilty. The sum of $117.05 was collected in fines and costs, the city getting $62.80, the police judge $35.75, and the police $12.50. Several cases where large fines were assessed have been appealed and of course nothing has been paid on them.

CONVICTED OF GUN TOTING

The forenoon was taken up by the police court in trying A. D. Johnson on a charge of gun toting. E. S. Ratliff, his attorney put up a spirited defense, insisting that he had a right to carry a gun while at his place of residence, the Harris hotel, but the judge was unable to see it that way, and imposed a fine of $50. The costs of the case ran the total up to $76.15. Notice of appeal was given.

The Sapulpa Light comes out day after day, declaring its allegiance to the g. o. p. organization and whooping for Taft as the next nominee of of the party for the presidency. Wonder if the editor of the Light has any designs on the pie counter?

In view of the fact that the name of the first Mrs. John Jacob Astor was Willing, and that of the bride-to-be is Force, an exchange says the colonel has been up against it going and coming.

By his veto of the tariff measures passed by the special session of congress, President Taft brands himself as the champion four flusher. He declares that the tariff neded doctoring in some places, but when an attempt was made to lower the bars in a few places, he interposes his veto.
He is probably fishing for the support of the big interests in his endeavor to secure a second term, well knowing that LaFollette has the West grabbed and that he can look for no favors from that section. From his own view he is probably taking the correct measure. With the postmasters and other federal appointees in the South under his thumb, it is only necessary to secure a few delegates from the eastern states to insure his nomination.

The rapidity with which some papers of the state change their attitude towards Gov. Cruce reminds one of the way most people treat a cat.
First, it is Kitty, Kitty, come Kitty.
Then after fondling said feline a few moments the tune changes to "Poor Kitty." Then about the time the cat thinks it has thoroughly in-gratified itself with its protector, comes the startling command: "Scat you brute."

The recent session of congress is the first in a quarter of a century in which the Democrats did not fall out among themselves and act the fool in the most ridiculous manner. For once they stuck together and every move was in the right direction. They succeeded in smoking Taft out of his hole and making him again line up with standpat element of the Republican party, thereby greatly reducing his chance of another term. If they hang to gether and act with as good judgment at the next session as at the one just closed, nothing can prevent a Democratic landslide next year.

The District Judge at Durant seems to be a persistent sort of cuss. He has just called a third grand jury to investigate the burning of the negro, neither of the first two showing any disposition to take action in the matter. About all the judge is accomplishing is making a display of himself before the grand stand, for no one else wants any body indicted in connection with the affair, and even if they did, a jury could not be found in the state that would convict one accused of participation in the affair.

DOCTOR EXPLAINS DISCOVERY OF TUBERCULAR CURE

Steamboat Springs, Colo., Aug. 25.
—Dr. Gerald Webb of Colorado Springs, at a session of the State Medical society's convention here described fully for the first time his discovery for the treatment and prevention of tuberculosis. He said that by the inoculation of patients with germs of the disease in carefully graded quantities a condition is reached which makes the person treated immune to the effects of the germs.

Mr. Webb said he was convinced that the treatment of tubercular patients would be revolutionized by the discovery and that consumption would be wiped out in time. He declared that the injection of tubercular serum would make it preventable as well as a curable disease.

Many children whose parents had the white plague have received treatment and in every case successful results were obtained, Dr. Webb told the convention.

Decaying Food Is Dangerous

Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Result of Negligence. Digestit the New Relief

Thousands of men and women are suffering from diseases caused by foul, decaying food in their stomachs.
This causes dangerous poison gases which makes the breath unbearable,

TWO PENTECOSTAL BLESSINGS PASTOR RUSSELL SAYS.

The Later Pentecost Will Be for the World in General—It Will Come Through Messiah's Kingdom Operating Through Israel Restored to Divine Favor—It Will Be Earth's Jubilee of a Thousand Years of Blessed Uplifting and Restitution to All the Willing and Obedient of Adam's Redeemed Race—The First Pentecost Brought Blessing Merely to the Church and Has Nearly Completed Its Intended Work.

Brooklyn, N. Y.,
June 4. — Pastor
Russell continues to draw the largest audiences of any preacher in the world to his oral addresses, besides the millions who weekly read
the printed reports of his discourses in the newspapers of the English speaking world. Today's audience at the Brooklyn Academy of Music was estimated at twenty-six hundred. Of these about three hundred, all men, were on the platform behind the speaker. Late comers failed altogether to gain admittance to the afternoon service. The text was appropriate for Whitsunday, it being St. Peter's explanation of the Pentecostal blessing—"This is that which was spoken by the mouth of the Prophet Joel" (Acts ii, 16-18).

The speaker called attention to the fact that the Prophet Joel mentions two distinct outpourings of the Holy Spirit. One of these, upon the servants and handmaidens of the Lord, found its fulfillment at Pentecost; and during the more than eighteen centuries since, God's spiritual blessing has been with, not only the Apostles, but all the footstep-followers of Jesus—all of God's servants and handmaidens.

St. Peter's statement, "This is that which was spoken by the mouth of the Prophet Joel," Pastor Russell said should not be taken to mean that what was witnessed in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost nearly nineteen centuries ago completely fulfilled the Prophet Joel's predictions. None, he said, would dispute that the fulfillment of Joel's prophecy began at Pentecost, with the early Church, and has been in progress of fulfillment during all the centuries since.

After these days of the Gospel Age—after these days of the outpouring of the Spirit upon God's servants and handmaidens—will come the glorious Epoch of Messiah's Kingdom, in and through which God will pour out upon the world of mankind a great blessing of enlightenment and uplift from the sin and death conditions now prevailing. It will be to the accomplishment of this end that Satan shall be bound for a thousand years, and the darkness, which now covers the earth and the gross darkness which now blinds the heathen, will be chased away by the glorious "Sun of Righteousness with healing in His beams."

Abraham's Spiritual Seed First.
Abraham of old typified Jehovah, and Isaac typified Messiah, born not after the flesh, but after the Spirit—by a special Divine Interposition—according to God's promise. Of this An-titypical Isaac class, Jesus is the Head, the Forerunner of the Church, as well as the world's Redeemer. The Body of Messiah is composed of a saintly few, according to the Scriptures, gathered, primarily, from the Jews, but being completed by additions from every nation, people, kindred and tongue.

This Church class, or Messiah class, is variously referred to in the prophecies as well as in the New Testament, as the "brethren" of Jesus, and as "sons of God." The world knoweth them not even as it knew not their Master.

Abraham's Natural Seed Next.
This Spiritual Seed of Abraham, all saintly, will constitute the Church of the First-Borns, the Antitype of the Priests and Levites of the Jewish Dispensation. With the completion of this Church, gathered out of all nations, sects and denominations, Divine favor will return again to the natural seed of Abraham. As the Jew was granted the first privilege or opportunity of becoming the Spiritual Seed of Abraham, he will likewise have the first opportunity to participate in the blessing which then will come to the whole world of mankind. "To the Jew first" is the Divine order in respect to both of these blessings. To this agree the words of the Apostle Paul.

The blessing will come through the great Messiah and as a result of the satisfaction He will make for the sins of the whole world, by applying to the race the merits of His sacrifice by which He will seal the New Law Covenant with Israel (Jeremiah xxxi.
31). The great Messiah of glory will be the Mediator of that New Covenant, and the foundation of that Covenant will be the better sacrifices offered by this Mediator, as the Antitypical High Priest (Hebrews ix, 19-23).

The Pentecostal blessing then to come upon the world will not be upon the terms of sacrificing their earthly rights to attain heavenly blessing and spiritual sonship; on the contrary, its requirements will be a consecration of obedience to the Divine Law; and its reward will be earthly Restitution to the perfection of human nature, and to the enjoyment of all the blessings originally given to Adam and forfeited by his disobedience.

To Owners of Real Estate In Pontotoc County

There are frequently found, upon examination, unknown and unsuspected clouds upon the title of real estate, such as unpaid taxes, uncancelled mortgages, mechanic liens, judgments, deeds of conveyances defective in signature, in acknowledgment or description, adverse claimants, errors made by conveying officers, and innumerable other defects, any of which may exist, all unsuspected by the owner, who fondly believes his title clear, but who really knows nothing about it, because he has never had an investigation made and an abstract of title prepared. Most of these clouds and defects could be cleared and cured were their existence known in time; but they lay dormant and are not discovered until the owner is rudely awakened from his fond dream of security by some progressive speculator or purchaser offering a good round price for his property, but demanding an abstract of title as the first condition of the sale.

MAKING DRY FARMING PAY.

Colorado Springs, August 23. — Farmers of the United States needlessly threw away $8,896,000 bushels of winter wheat this year, not to mention an enormous loss in other farm products, simply because they failed to prepare against drought by taking steps to keep moisture in the soil. This is the declaration of Secretary John T. Burns of the International Dry-Farming Congress, who is now preparing to conduct the Sixth Congress, which meets in this city next October.

Mr. Burns had just read the report of the United States Department of Agriculture for August, showing that loss under the 1911 crop. Before him lay a sheaf of wheat raised by J. M. Bradshaw of Peyton, Colo., who has just threshed an average of 20 bushels per acre from 100 acres, patches in which ran as high as 57 bushels. On the Bradshaw land only four inches of moisture fell from the time this wheat was planted, September 2, to the day it was cut, July 15, and there is not a live stream in 25 miles. This land was summer tilled, then is carefully cultivated and the weeds kept down the summer before it was planted. This is one of the tenets of scientific dry-farming as taught by the Congress. It is applicable to every part of the land, says Mr. Burns. The average of all wheat in the U. S. according to the government is only 14.5 bushels, and the quality is 92 as against 92.6 last year. So there is nothing wrong with the 1911 wheat but lack of moisture.

"Every farmer in the land could have done as Mr. Bradshaw did with his little four inches of rainfall, had he been intelligent enough to study dry-farming methods and willing to do the necessary work," declares Mr. Burns. "Some day they will prepare to meet drought as they do all other adverse phenomena of nature, and overcome it, too."

GO RIGHT AT IT.

Friends and Neighbors in Ada Will Show You How.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it.

But it won't cure it. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it; Reach the cause; relieve the pain. They cure, too, so Ada people say:

Mrs. M. S. Kyser, 502 West Main St., Ada, Okla., says: "Last summer I suffered a great deal from a dull heavy ache through my back and hips. I thought it was due to a cold settling on my kidneys and that it would soon disappear. The pains gradually became more intense and other symptoms of kidney trouble set in. I at length decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and procured a box. After taking a few doses I felt much better and I continued using this remedy until every symptom of my trouble had disappeared. I am glad to state that I have had no return of kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

WHEN LIGHT FAILED IN TOWN OF GEEVILLE

The Trumpet Blast of Freedom Forced to Skip Issue.

Cyrenus Bimflick, Touring Genius, Works Havoc With Editor's Plans.

By ED MOTT.

A touring professor of the art preservative came into the Trumpet Blast office and agreed in consideration of a quarter, to be paid when I returned, and a dime to him in hand duly paid for present requirement in the form of two of Fritz's schooners, to set a column of matter needed for the paper that week, while I rode eight miles on Deacon Beaver's lame old mare and collected five dollars that a man down the river, and good as the wheat, owed me for some horse bills, and which would insure satisfactory negotiation with the express company of the Trumpet Blast's paper for the current issue. I showed the tramp printer the copy book with the copy on it, among which was a very able story of my own about the wonderful doings of a rat, and rode away.

It happened that the man I was going to see had come to Geeville that morning and I did not know it until I got to his house. On my way back, though, I met him. He did not stop, but as he drove on by he shouted to me that he had stopped in the Trumpet Blast office and paid that five dollars to my partner.

My partner! Visions of the tramp printer and that five dollars in association over at Fritz's rose before me, and it was a shame the way I rode the deacon's old mare back to Geeville. The Trumpet Blast office was empty when I got there. I dashed over to Fritz's, fearing the worst, but hoping that the lure of the place had held the tourist there in soft dalliance with its wares; but he had tarried, so they told me, only long enough to put away two schooners and get a five-dollar bill changed, and then had gone his way. I went back to the office, and all the consolation I got was in a communication he had left on my table addressed to me. This was it:

"Sir: With one fell swoop you hurl me from the realm of art back to sideshow barking again, and I flee!"

"Listen to my tale of woe.

"Years ago I wrote a little story of the doings of a common house rat that showed the possession of something trespassing on genius. On the part of the rat. The item was printed in a New York newspaper. At the time I was a compositor in a small weekly down York state way. Soon afterward, the rural editor I was working for was constrained, owing to almost universal noninterference on the part of the reading and business public in the affairs of his office, to discontinue the publication of his saying, sir, that you will pause right here and call me a liar, but I refer you to the foreman of that office for corroboration. I forget his name, and think he has left there, but you can look him up. I had the rat story for a take right away, and it was credited to a rural paper 'way up in Minnesota! Bad enough for me to go to St. Louis after that, but worse still to find my rat story waiting for me in a newspaper office there, credited to an Indianapolis paper.

"I journeyed southward, only to find Nashville, Atlanta, New Orleans, Mobile, Charleston, Savannah, and other places, both as I went and came, always ready with that rat story to shove into my hand, credited to as many different papers.

"I began to feel at last that this rat story was sort of an Old Man of the Sea to me. Its burden was becoming unbearable. The form it took as a pet white rat was more than I could bear. This was passed to me in the composing room of a Philadelphia newspaper. I set it up, jumped the town, and fled to New York, fearing to tarry by the way in New Jersey, for if I had been confronted with the rat story and Jersey both, I know that certain and lasting collapse would have been mine.

"I will fly to New York," I said. "There, if anywhere, I can escape that rat and the unfortunate genius of it that impelled me to put it on record." "You may imagine my astonishment, sir; I may well say my horror, then, when in the office of the very newspaper which had printed that rat story for me originally five years before, I found the haunting item, the avenging Nemesis, my Old Man of the Sea, awaiting me!

"This is a warning of some kind,

A Touring Professor of the Art Preservative Came into the Office.

newspaper, and I was thrown out of a job.

"The office owed me $15. All the money that was due the office was just that amount. It was owed by a marble cutter, and he was perfectly good for it. I asked the editor to give me an order on the marble cutter for the amount. He said he would if I insisted on having it, but the debt was payable in trade. He was saving it, he said, with tears in his eyes, to get a tombstone for his poor old father, who, he said, was then on his last legs. But I could have the order if I wanted it, he said, mournfully. I couldn't see where I could use any grave stones to advantage just then, and I hadn't the heart, anyway, to rob the editor of the poor comfort of marking the last resting place of his old father with a suitable memorial, and so I didn't take the order. I did what all aspiring typos do in similar situations. I combined pedestrianism with my art, and started out to do the country and the newspapers of the country.

"The first place I paused in was Buffalo, N. Y. Got a sit, subbing. The very first take they handed me out was that rat story of mine, clipped from the paper that had printed it first. Said nothing. Set it up. Cleveland lured me next. One night stand. Minute I grabbed a stick they put me to work on that rat story, clipped from the Buffalo paper. Walking was good all the way down through Ohio. In four country newspaper offices I set up that rat story of mine.

"Fled to Chicago. Got a sit, in a big newspaper office. Pardon me for sure as fate!" said I. "This irrepresible rat story isn't chasing me all over the country in its various disguises for nothing! I'll quit the business."

"Threw up my job then and there. Gave up my beloved art. Took up barking for a sideshow. That was five years since, and I was barking still, when a little while ago the strenuous voice of the old time began to buzz in my ears.

"Sir, yours is the first town I have struck, and I hailed it with joy. But now I flee from it, and am getting away as fast as I can. Why? Listen. I took up here the composing stick again for the first time in years. What have you dug up and put before me as my first take of copy? My Old Man of the Sea! My avenging Nemesis! Reincarnation of the rat story, the haunting thing from which I fled five years ago! And done by you!"

"Sir, not for less than $7.50 would I confront such a shock as this and remain to defy the warning of it! But I credit you with the five the nice old gent brought in. You can forward me the balance by first mail, my risk.

"With one fell swoop you hurl me from the realms of art back to sideshow barking again, and I flee. I say good-by, not an revoir. Yours, crushed, Cyrenus Bimflick.

There are people to this day who do not know why the Trumpet Blast of Freedom missed publication that week. "Rush of outside job work," so I stated in the next number that came out.

Life's Blessings

For the mother in the home to be strong and well, able to devote her time and strength to the rearing of children, is one of life's greatest blessings. Often the bearing of children injures the mother's health, if she has not prepared her system in advance for the important event.

Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much of the discomfort and suffering so common with expectant mothers. It is a penetrating oil that thoroughly lubricates every muscle, nerve and tendon involved at such times, and thus promotes physical comfort. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues and perfectly prepares the system for the coming of baby. Mother's Friend assures a quick and natural recovery for every woman who uses it. It is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.
